Hurley's visit to White Waltham will probably be best remembered for the senior debut of the latest product of the Hurley youth programme. Eleven year old Chris Dawkins followed in the footsteps of his father and two uncles and produced an excellent fielding and bowling display on his debut.

Matt Hampton won the toss and asked the hosts to bat first. Andy Elliott (109*) and Matt Earl (56) made the best of some early good fortune to rack up 124 inside 22 overs for the first wicket. A misjudged single proved the downfall of Earl, as Mike Walton swooped at extra cover to return the ball to the bowler and leave Earl yards short of his ground. A wicket apiece for Scott Taylor and Parvinder Hunjan were the only other highlights for the visitors. As the sky darkened and thunder rumbled around the ground, Elliott reached his century just before the players were sent scurrying from the field by a downpour. The weather improved during the tea interval but the arrival of the White Waltham groundsman, worried about potential damage to his square, put paid to any hopes of further play leaving both teams frustrated by the early finish.
