Result: Pinkneys Green won by 99 runs.

Hurley 2nd XI's batting this season has been a case of feast or famine and this Saturday was not a feast day. On winning the toss Clive Williams asked the hosts to bat first on a wicket that looked a bit green with damp patches. Unsurprisingly the batsmen found life difficult with the ball bouncing unpredictably. Richard Hemmings was the first to go in the fourth over with only three runs on the board. A late swinging delivery from Joban Singh thudded into the pads leaving the umpire no option other than to raise the finger and send his club chairman back to the pavilion. A diving, one handed grab from Josh Cole in the slips off Joban saw the end of Mike Elliott (4) with the score on twelve. Milo Taylor (53) and Darren Craythorne staged a recovery with a partnership of 33 for the third wicket and when Craythorne fell to Ross Brown, Chris Heyes joined Taylor to take the score up to 80 before top edging Liam Cole to his brother Josh at slip. Cole picked up a career best 5-42 and with the hosts reduced to 94 for 7 Hurley had hopes of an early tea and a small total to chase. However the Pinkneys tail wagged to good effect with James Hemmings (22), Imran Tariq (16) and Jack McDonagh (21*) taking them to a respectable 156 for 9 from their 40 overs.

The Hurley reply never really got going with both openers back in the hutch inside three overs with only four runs to show for their efforts and three of those were wides. Josh Cole (14) has been the in-form batsman this season and looked to be going well with a couple of boundaries to his name before falling to a shooter from Imran Tariq. A combination of good bowling and poor shot selection saw a procession of batsmen troop back to the pavilion. Mike Walton (10) was the only other Hurley player to reach double figures and the only one to last more than 20 deliveries before over balancing as he reached forward to a Mike Elliott delivery and was smartly stumped by Feasey. The last two wickets fell without any addition to the total as Liam Cole and Alex Williams fell in successive Chris Heyes deliveries to put Hurley out of their misery and cement Pinkneys' position at the top of the division two table.
