Result: Hurley won by 92 runs.

On a glorious late Summer's day, for the second week in succession a 2nd Hurley XI had an outing, visiting White Waltham for their annual fixture. Having chosen to bat, Gul (18) and Cole (31) set the innings off to a good start before Gul expectedly fell LBW. 13-year-old Brittain played an encouraging innings, displaying a fine touch through the offside and driving the ball with aplomb for a career best 33 in his 2nd game. The innings stagnated as Cole (31) and Akhtar (83*) struggled to adapt to the slow pitch. At 131 after 30 overs, Akhtar, after benefiting from multiple dropped catches and refusals began to find his range with a series of clubbing sixes to propel Hurley to a substantial 226 from their allocated 40 overs.

In response, a youthful White Waltham were unable to get a grasp on the game. Despite being erratic Liam Cole (3-30) picked up a series of wickets and Ridgeway (2-27) kept a tight rein on the batsman. Dhillon (39) provided the glue to the innings with some stubborn resistance along with Mogta (30), before becoming one of three stumping victims for keeper (according the WW's scorebook) Simoyles. The returning Arshad managed to find some lift throughout his spell, aiming to impress Gul for the 2021 campaign. It was left to fellow U13 'McTavish' Gangwani (4-1-8-0) and Brittain (3.5-0-25-1) to bowl out the final few overs for a significant victory.
