Result: Hurley won by 3 wickets.

Hurley's Sunday side recorded their first victory of the season with a three wicket win over local rivals Holyport.

The visitors chose to bat first on another scorching hot day and were soon in trouble, losing Sulaman to Hamzah Zaman's second delivery. Paul Jheeta (52) anchored the innings sharing partnerships of 23 with Bailey Larder and 48 with Usman Ghazi before falling to Steve Taylor. The Drew brothers both impressed with the ball, Noah taking 1 for 12 off 4 overs and Henry 1 for 18 off 5, but it was the veteran leg-spinner Taylor who wrapped up the Holyport innings with 4 for 35.

The Hurley reply was dominated by John Munday (44) and Josh Cole (38) who shepherded the inexperienced youngsters well. Usman Ghazi with 5 for 31 was the pick of the bowlers, but poor catching let Holyport down. When Cole and Henry Drew fell in consecutive deliveries with 14 runs left for victory, it was left to Dave Simoes and Taylor to see Hurley home with four overs to spare.
