Result: Match Drawn.

A much-improved performance by Hurley saw them get the better of a draw against The Lee at Shepherds Lane. With players from both sides stuck on the A404 due to traffic problems, the match started 10 minutes late with Hurley put into bat by visiting skipper Mike Harris. The opening pair of Prabinder Singh and Gurpreet Singh started in positive fashion albeit contrasting styles. Prabinder (27) played some classy strokes, while Gurpreet (15) preferred the more rumbustious approach. The partnership had reached 45 in the ninth over when Gurpreet holed out to Henry Quinn of Matt Line who had replaced Jordan Essex at the River

End. Line also dismissed Prabinder, clean bowled at 86 for 2 in the fifteenth. Jagdeep Singh found the form that has eluded him so far this season with a blistering 84 from 63 deliveries before edging to the keeper to give Line his third victim. Olly Gurney pulled up lame after one delivery of his fifth over and was replaced by Oscar Lawson who struck with his second delivery to dismiss Ridgeway (6). At 127 for 3 after twenty overs, the hosts were relishing the prospect of posting a large total and a possible declaration, but a middle order collapse saw three wickets fall on 162. Essex returned to dismiss Manpreet (16) and Mike Walton (6) leaving Hurley still short of a fifth batting point with a possible six overs remaining. Muhammad Adnan (31*) and Amaan Mahmood (1*) ensured they batted out the remaining overs and post a competitive total of 224 for 9, although Adnan appeared fortunate to survive a confident appeal for caught behind off Lawson early in his innings.

The visitors' chase suffered an early setback when Harris (7) looked a little unlucky to be adjudged leg before to Manpreet. If Harris was unlucky, the same could not be said for Bhatti who survived an edge that flew to slip via the keeper and just evaded the diving attempt of Ridgeway followed by a confident appeal for leg-before, to make twenty-two before holing out off Saeed Ajmal. With The Lee keeping up with the required rate off the seamers, Gul turned to Ridgeway who put a brake on the run rate and had Chaudry well caught by Manpreet. Henry Quinn played a very classy knock reaching a chanceless fifty before a cross-batted heave to a Ridgeway slower ball saw him lose his leg-stump. At 96 for 4, the visitors appeared to give up hopes of victory and Neil Hollister and Mark Channer dug in to frustrate the Hurley bowlers, taking the score to 140 with two overs remaining. Hollister's patience eventually waned, and Ridgeway tempted him into a rash shot and was caught by Prabinder. The final ball of the innings saw Lawson edge to slip off Jagdeep, where Ridgeway took the catch to give Hurley another bowling point which may turn out to be vital at the end of the season. In summary, a good all-round performance by Hurley despite not being able to force the win.
